MAKING ENDODONTICS EASY, SAFE AND PREDICTABLE:
An All Skills Class Specifically Designed For The General Practitioner

DR. JOHN WEST

Treasuring endodontic patients, you know what you want: Confidence, Consistency, and Control. And endodontist, Dr. John West, knows what you need: Skills, Skills, and Skills.

This morning’s presentation followed by the afternoon’s hands-on skills workshop will transform your endodontic ease and predictability while creating a valued and comfortable service for your patient. Dr. West will teach you how to change endodontic fear into fun. You will “Hear It”, “See It”, “Do It”, and then Dr. West will “Measure It” to be sure each and every doctor knows how to win the endodontic game using time tested endodontic biologic principles combined with exceptional leading endodontic treatment technologies. For a day of endodontic enjoyment and endodontic reward, come and learn the practice of “Making Endodontics Easy, Safe, and Predictable”

EDUCATIONAL OBJECTIVES

- Learn how nature has taught us to be endodontically successful
- Learn how to “find” all canals
- Practice skills to “follow” all canals using the lost art of the four manual motions
- Learn the art and skill of “finishing” all canals: Shaping, Cleaning, Conifit, easy 3D obturation
- Learn manual vs. mechanical glidepath preparation for safe mechanical shaping
- Learn how to choose rotary vs. reciprocation?
- Implement these new skills for your first endodontic patient Monday morning
