

ORAL INFLAMMATION AND ITS LINKS TO ORAL AND SYSTEMIC HEALTH: NOVEL APPROACHES TO SCREENING AND MONITORING

DR. MICHAEL GLOGAUER

We will review how oral leukocytes are key clinical biomarkers of oral inflammation, the role of an oral leukocyte count as an effective screening tool for oral inflammation similar to a white blood cell count serving as a screening tool for infection, how oral inflammation impacts the systemic immune response and the future or screening for oral inflammation in the dental setting.

EDUCATIONAL OBJECTIVES

- Appreciate based on recent evidence the impact of oral inflammation on overall immune health
- Appreciate the importance of educating patients on the role of oral inflammation on overall health
- Appreciate the importance of being able to screen for oral inflammation in the dental setting

Association For Continuing Dental Education

The Association of Continuing Dental Education (ACDE) brings together individuals who represent college- and university-based continuing dental education programs associated with accredited dental schools in Canada and the United States. The ACDE is here to serve you, the dental professional, in delivering high quality, evidence-based continuing dental education programs to meet your educational needs.

The University of British Columbia, Continuing Dental Education in conjunction with the ACDE, and along with 30 of its member schools, jointly presents the "ACDE Webinar Series". This series features university-based key opinion leaders presenting on numerous topics on multiple dates and times. Presentations are available to meet every dental health care professional's schedule and interests.

Please visit dentistry.ubc.ca/cde for a list of ACDE webinar offerings.

Continuing Education
Recognition Program

Continuing Dental Education (CDE) at the University of British Columbia (UBC) is an ADA CERP Recognized Provider. ADA CERP is a service of the American Dental Association to assist dental professionals in identifying quality providers of continuing dental education. ADA CERP does not approve or endorse individual courses or instructors, nor does it imply acceptance of credit hours by boards of dentistry. CDE at UBC designates this activity for the above listed hours of instruction. Concerns or complaints about a CE provider may be directed to the provider or to the Commission for Continuing Education Provider Recognition at CCEPR.ada.org. This continuing education activity has been planned and implemented in accordance with the standards of the ADA Continuing Education Recognition Program (ADA CERP) through joint efforts between CDE at UBC and Association for Continuing Dental Education (ACDE).

DISCLAIMER: Dental education institutions have an obligation to disseminate new knowledge related to dental practice. Some presentations may include controversial materials or commercial references. Sponsorship of a continuing education course by The University of British Columbia does not imply endorsement of a particular philosophy, procedure or product by The University of British Columbia. Fee in full must accompany registration. The tuition fee is deductible for Canadian Income Tax purposes. See cancellation policy.
